

Highs and lows

At the end of each season, some football fans will have experienced enormous joy because of the achievements of their team, whilst for other fans, their football team might have reduced them to tears. These are the 'highs and lows' that are associated with supporting a football team.

1 What do you think are the 'highs' of being a football fan?

.....

.....

.....

.....

2 What about the 'lows'?

.....

.....

.....

.....

Pick one event and try to describe the feelings that you would associate with it. Imagine that the person that you are writing for has never been to a football match and doesn't know anything at all about football.

