Spelling Game

Instructions – A game for 2 players.

Equipment – One laminated board game, 2 counters, one dice and a pack of the attached spelling cards (these need to be cut up, spread out and facing down so neither player can see the words until they are needed).

How To Play - Players take it in turns to roll the dice. If a player lands on a 'star' spot, they must be tested on one of the spellings by the opposing player. The opposing player chooses a word card of their choice and reads out the word. If the speller gets the spelling right, they can roll on their next turn. If the player get the spelling wrong, they must write the word out correctly 5 times and miss a turn.

Wordships Spelling Game

Game instructions

A game for 2 players. Each player needs a laminated game board and a whiteboard pen. Before the game can begin, each player must secretly choose 10 rectangles in which to write the 10 spelling words or 'wordships'. This week's spellings – especially, exaggerate, exaggerated, exaggeration, excellent, excellence, excel, excelled, existence, explanation. Players take it in turns to give co-ordinates. Player 1 begins by giving player 2 a co-ordinate, e.g B4. If this co-ordinate finds a 'wordship' on player 2's board, player 2 must say the word and player 1 must spell it correctly. If player 1 spells the word correctly, they sink player 2's 'wordship' (player 2 puts a cross over the word). However, if the spelling is incorrect, the 'wordship' doesn't need to be crossed and remains afloat for another turn. The aim of the game is to sink all the opposing player's 'wordships'.
