

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU:

- We will respect and value all people equally, regardless of age, disability, sex, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, gender, pregnancy, and maternity, marriage or civil partnership, in accordance with the College's 'Equality and Diversity' policy.
- We will always put your personal safety first and provide you with a safe environment in which to learn; responding consistently to any safeguarding concerns you might have.
- We will maintain a zero-tolerance approach to any form of bullying, abuse, or harassment, including sexual harassment or violence.
- We will provide you with personal development opportunities and support you to improve your health, safety, and wellbeing.
- We will provide opportunities for you to give us feedback through the 'Learner Voice' programme.
- We will help you to choose courses which are right for you.
- We will provide information, advice and guidance on progression, employability, and career opportunities.
- We will support you in your learning and wherever possible, provide resources which meet your individual needs.
- We will set targets with you that are challenging but achievable.
- We will ensure that assessment of your learning is clear, regular, and constructive.
- We will give you regular feedback on your progress.
- We will provide information to your parent/guardian (if 18 years or under) on your attendance and achievement.
- We will deal promptly and consistently with any complaints you may have.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO US:

- We expect you to always have your Exeter College I.D. with you, on all sites, College visits and trips.
- We expect you to be mindful of your personal safety, and the safety of others by proactively raising concerns should they arise.
- We expect you to have full attendance at all timetabled activities. Always aim for 100% and talk to us if you are struggling with attendance.
- We expect you to be punctual for all timetabled activities.
- We expect you to take responsibility of your health, safety, and wellbeing by engaging with any support that may be offered to you.
- We expect you to attend all Learning Support sessions if that may be offered to you.
- We expect you to complete your work in accordance with the requirements of your course, and to meet the deadlines set by your subject lecturer.
- We expect you to take responsibility for your learning by participating in all learning activities and working collaboratively with your peers
- We expect you to set yourself targets to support your learning and to review them regularly
- We expect you to make learning successful for everyone by behaving in a way that promotes a co-operative and productive learning environment.
- We expect you to play an active part in equality and diversity by respecting the rights of others and by responsibly reporting inappropriate and unsafe behaviours.
- We expect you to understand that if you are eligible for Financial Support then payments are reliant on good attendance, behaviour, and commitment.
- We expect you to always treat the Learning Resource Centres (LRC's) as quiet study areas and be respectful of other learners.
- We expect you to value the College environment and respect our neighbours in the city centre. Do not eat and drink (except water) in classrooms and workshops and dispose of litter responsibly. Use the recycling facilities in the College and litter bins in the local parks and city centre.
