Welcome from your Programme Manager

I am delighted that you will be joining us in September 2023 to begin your studies on the BA (Ord) in Business Management at Exeter College. The programme offers a well-balanced and wide ranging curriculum to place you in the best position to follow your desired career path. Students in our previous academic years have entered the job market directly onto graduate schemes or taken jobs as business managers within local and more distant organisations. The majority were offered places to progress on to Exeter University BA (Hons) Business Studies top up year. Several progressed to other universities to follow specific interests on other top-up Business-related degrees. Other students have developed their own commercial enterprises and are self-employed.

Our modules build on your previous knowledge gained from your or Foundation Degree in Business or a Business related HND. We offer in-depth insights into Management Decisions, Contemporary Issues in Business, People Management and International Marketing Strategy with an option this year to follow your own personal research interest in a Work-Based Management Project, linked to gaining specific workplace and industry skills.

As a dually registered student at both Exeter College and University of Exeter you will access to extensive physical and digital resources, guest speakers and events. What makes the BABM programme unique is the small class size and interactive and personal group tutorial system led by experienced academics with successful commercial track records in local, national and international environments. We pride ourselves on our range of guest speakers, current case study material, range of assessment types and relevant visits and trips to employers, alumni, businesses and institutions.

I look forward to working with you in the new academic year.

STEP UP TO THE TOP-UP DEGREE COURSE

This section is designed to help you make the transition from your Foundation Degree or HND Business, to the University of Exeter, BA Ord Business Management course, as smooth as possible. It answers the questions you might have about the differences between your Foundation Degree or HND Business and the UoE Honours degree programme. Hopefully, it will start you thinking about how best to prepare yourself for the new year.

WHAT IS A TOP-UP DEGREE?

The following answers a series of frequently asked questions about top-up degrees.

Q: What is a top-up degree?

Students with higher education (HE) qualifications such as a Foundation Degree have the option of progressing on to degree programmes. This type of progression route is commonly known as a top-up degree.

Q: How long will it take me to complete this top-up degree?

In this instance the top-up degree can be completed in one year. The one year's study at Exeter College results in an Ordinary degree. If you want to carry on to gain an Honours degree then that would require a further one year's study at the main University of Exeter Campus, subject to achieving 60% grading.

Q: Are lectures compulsory?

You will need to participate fully in your programme. This will include attending and taking part in teaching, learning and/or research events included in your programme, meeting regularly with your programme and/or supervisory team as appropriate, making proper use of all resources available, and preparing and submitting assessed work on time. Further information is available <http://www.exe-coll.ac.uk/HE/Life/ImportantInfo> 5.2-5.5

Q: What is the difference between the work I do at Foundation Degree or HND Business and the work expected of me as a degree student?

You may find there is a difference in the level of understanding, analysis and evaluation of material and arguments and depth of reading that is required of you. You could ask a member of staff to talk to you about the possible differences.

Q: I've heard about seminar groups. What are these?

They are small group sessions where the lecture is often discussed in more detail. You could well be expected to do additional reading in order to contribute effectively to the discussion.

Q: Will I need to sit formal exams? If so where can I find examples and help?

You will need to sit exams. Moodle (VLE) will hold examples of past papers and lecturers will explain what is expected of you in exams. If you need specific support for examinations.

Programme Managers can apply for access arrangements in the usual way, but please do so as soon as possible to enable the Exams Office to put the appropriate arrangements in place. Please contact Carmen Dix, HE DSA Adviser for information and guidance on Exam support.

Q: At degree level do I need to know how to reference in a particular way. Where can I find out what referencing system is used by University of Exeter?

The student handbook and university website will provide details on the referencing system used. There will be a key skills handout in the library with samples that you can look at. It will be the Harvard referencing system that you are used to using on your Foundation Degree or HND Business. Exeter University use APA which is similar to Harvard.

IMPORTANT THINGS TO DO

- Read your Student Handbook. Follow each module on Moodle/ Sharepoint.
- Attend Induction and do everything you can to understand how things work – this will make your life easier once your programme starts.
- Attend lectures, you will benefit, particularly if you reflect afterwards on what was said, what you understand and what you did not understand.
- Even if you are given lecture handouts, you will find taking your own notes helpful to your concentration.
- Attend and participate in seminars, tutorials and workshops, they are ways of enhancing your understanding.
- Time manage your workload and submission research and planning.
- Know where to hand in coursework using Turnitin on Moodle.
- Submit coursework on time with full referencing.
- Ensure you understand the Extenuating/ Mitigating Circumstances procedure should you need it. Speak to the HE Department for any queries
HEOffice@exe-coll.ac.uk
- Ask for help if you feel you need it. Speak to your tutor regarding academic support
- Mental health and counselling services are available at Greystone House, at Hele Road or speak with Carmen Dix, HE Disability Advisor for further assistance
<https://adexecollacuk.sharepoint.com/sites/AdultLearning/SitePages/Disability-and-Well-being-Support.aspx>
- Find a peer or group to share ideas and work collaboratively with.
- Find out more about the bibliographical referencing system you need to use and how much referencing is expected in each piece of work at this level. Speak to your tutor <https://libguides.exeter.ac.uk/referencing>
- Do use reading lists and add to them

KEY SKILLS—WHAT WILL I NEED?

As well as knowledge about your subject, all undergraduates need certain key skills. You may already have high levels of skill in some areas, but you need to consider how your skills meet the requirements of your degree programme.

Things to think about

- ✓ You need to 'hit the ground running' in order to get the best results you can from your degree level studies. Swift acquisition of the necessary key skills will enable you to produce work of the required standard and help you to get good grades to count towards your final degree mark.
- ✓ Employers are expecting graduates to provide evidence of the skills they have acquired during their programme. Starting to think about this early should make collecting evidence of these skills easier. You might think about compiling a progress file or personal academic record. This will help you gather and keep supporting evidence for your accomplishments.
- ✓ Use the HE online Careers Centre accessed through Moodle to create your CV, understand your motivations, research industry and job or internship opportunities
- ✓ How well do you manage your time? With an hour to spare before your next lecture, do you choose a cup of coffee or a trip to the library? You will probably have fewer hours in class than before but need to use the rest of your time for independent study. You will also be expected to find more information for yourself. Lecturers will not give good marks to assessments that are just a reworking of material they have given you. Lectures are a starting point for study, not the complete work package.
- ✓ Use the HE careers adviser, Deborah Kearney, deborahkearney@exe-coll.ac.uk and examine the appropriate support videos, articles, advice and guidance. Further careers, internships and graduate schemes will be discussed in 1-2-1 and group sessions at UoE.
- ✓ Make an honest appraisal of your skills levels – grouped under broad headings:
  - communication
  - data skills
  - IT skills
  - improving one's own learning
  - working with others

As an example of the type of initial appraisal you might make, score yourself from

1 (not confident) to 5 (very confident) for the following skills:

Communication:
Do I communicate clearly and concisely in writing?	1	2	3	4	5
Do I read efficiently and retain information from my reading?	1	2	3	4	5
Do I speak fluently one-to-one and in group situations?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I give a presentation using a range of audio-visual aids?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I cite my sources using Harvard Referencing?	1	2	3	4	5
Information Technology
Am I confident in using technology?	1	2	3	4	5
Do I know the best IT application to use for the job in hand?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I use a number of computer applications, such as word, spreadsheets and e-mail ?	1	2	3	4	5
Numeracy:
Do I know how best to collect numerical data?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I process data efficiently and do calculations accurately?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I analyse and interpret numerical data?	1	2	3	4	5
Improving one's own learning
Do I manage my time efficiently?	1	2	3	4	5
Do I manage resources efficiently?	1	2	3	4	5
Do I plan, monitor and assess my own work and wellbeing?	1	2	3	4	5
Can I use a range of texts, reports and digital sources?	1	2	3	4	5
Working with others:
Do I work well with others in a team?	1	2	3	4	5

- ✓ You should have an idea of areas that could be improved – try to focus initially on things that you can do something about. For instance improving your team working skills is difficult to tackle on your own!
- ✓ Use some of the readily available material on key skills to improve your competence in certain areas – see below.
- ✓ Look at the information you have been given at induction; some important areas may have been covered then.
- ✓ Look at the marking criteria for assessments on your programme. These are in your programme handbook. Try to apply your work to these criteria. For instance, criteria for a good essay include factors such as evidence of supplementary reading, relevance to subject, clear structure, good style and grammar, correct referencing. You will need to achieve all of these for a good mark.
- ✓ Ask your tutor for advice, particularly if your first coursework does not get the grade that you expected, talking to the person who set the work is also recommended. A skills appraisal, like the one above, could be useful as a starting point for this discussion.

Exeter College is committed to the principles of equality and diversity for all its staff and learners and actively challenges any unlawful discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, gender, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, marital or civil partnership status, race, religion or belief or none, and sexual orientation. The values of equality and diversity underpin all our courses. We promote positive attitudes towards diversity, encourage all learners and staff to reach their full potential and take proactive steps to take account of the additional needs of those people who may experience the greatest barriers to fulfilling their potential.

This Policy Statement applies to all stages of the Higher Education student life cycle.

REFERENCING & PLAGIARISM

This is a very important issue and you need to read this next section very thoroughly. Further information will be found on the HE Hub-Plagiarism section.

Plagiarism can be defined as the deliberate use of another person's work in your own work, as if it were your own, without adequate acknowledgement of the original source. If this is done in work that you submit for assessment, then you are attempting to mislead the person marking your work. In other words, plagiarism is cheating - trying to claim the credit for something that is not your work.

This is a serious offence, because it threatens to undermine the value of a qualification. We take it very seriously, and will impose severe penalties on students who are found guilty of plagiarism.

In Exeter College, we use a wide range of methods to detect possible plagiarism, including electronic methods. The Turnitin system detects similarities and frequencies of words or phrases. We also change our assessments every year, to ensure that work is not copied from earlier years. Ensure that references have been properly acknowledged using the Harvard or APA referencing system. The Turnitin system on Moodle must be used to electronically submit all assignments.

The penalties imposed:

- In any case of plagiarism, where the work of one student is used by another in an attempt to deceive the examiners, both the student who does the copying and the person whose work is copied will receive ZERO MARKS/GRADE for that item of assessment.
- Similarly, any submitted work that contains unacknowledged blocks of text from published works (including web-based sources) in an attempt to deceive will receive ZERO MARKS/GRADE.
- In all cases above, we will ask the Departmental Administrator to record the act of plagiarism permanently on the student's academic record.

Academic Appeals and Complaints

Complaints should first be raised with your Programme Manager. If you are dissatisfied or wish you may go directly to raise a formal complaint, in writing to the Student Engagement Officer who will provide the correct forms and guidance. HEOffice@exe-coll.ac.uk. Full details of the procedure can be found on Moodle under the HE Hub.

Following a Board of Examiners your final result will be confirmed to you in writing. There may be occasions when you believe that you have been unfairly treated and in this situation you may have the right to make a formal appeal to the College. If you believe you have grounds for appeal please contact the HE Department

All Complaints and Appeals will be treated in strictest confidence.

Please note that at any stage of the complaints or appeals procedure you are entitled to be accompanied by a person of your choosing.

You also have full opportunity to raise matters of concern on academic matters throughout your time at the college without fear of disadvantage and in the knowledge that your privacy and confidentiality will be respected. Your tutor will be able to advise you on where you can obtain impartial help, advice, guidance and support.

Disability Support

The DSA Supervisor/Advisor can help, advise or guide you with any disability or support related issue. This could be applying for individual exam arrangements, or additional support via Disabled Students Allowance (DSA).

DSA provides funding to cover the cost of additional support for students with mental health conditions; physical health conditions; learning difficulties and sensory impairments which may impact on their studies.

At Exeter College we encourage students to engage with us so we can meet individual student needs effectively and in a timely manner.

Tutoring

One of the major objectives that the College has in supporting you throughout the duration of your studies is to help you become an independent learner. Not only do we aim to equip you with the skills and attributes that will enable you to successfully complete your course but also to continue learning and developing throughout your professional working life. The College offers students a number of different means of tutorial support designed to meet the particular needs of students.

Responsibilities of your tutor (academic issues)

- To ensure that you have accurate information about your course and the choices open to you
- To ensure that you know what support and resources are available for your use and that you have access to them, including Disability Support where appropriate
- To assist you in identifying your own learning needs
- To ensure that you have appropriate opportunities to develop your learning skills
- To monitor your progression through your course
- To provide you with up to date advice and academic guidance when needed and to refer you to specialist support when appropriate..
- Demonstrate access to College systems including including Mitigating Circumstances requests and our online ' Career Centre', Exeter College's online Careers Advice and Guidance found on the HE Hub on Moodle.

Other forms of tutorial support

Should you be experiencing difficulties in relation to a particular module you should always seek help in the first instance from your subject lecturer. For example, if you have difficulty in understanding a subject area and require advice on how you could further research the area you could seek this help from your subject lecturer.

It is not uncommon for students, at some point, during their studies to experience some personal difficulties. These can range from problems with time management, money difficulties, illness etc. Should you experience such difficulties you can seek pastoral support from your personal tutor. Where your personal tutor is unable to offer you the appropriate advice they may suggest you seek further guidance from the College's Student Experience Department who can advise you on a range of support services.

HE Careers Advice and Guidance

Support to plan your future employment opportunities will be given in group and 1:1 tutorials.
